After going through New Zealand's strict Covid-19 quarantine protocol following his return from the USA, Michael Wallace is enjoying the chance to relax in more familiar surroundings back in Cambridge.

With the Coronavirus pandemic forcing the rescheduling of major American Yearling sales such as Keeneland and Fasig Tipton to later in the year, the China Horse Club's Chief Operating Officer took the opportunity to return to his native New Zealand for a short break.

Wallace is pleased to be able to return to some sort of normality following his isolation period as he updates himself with the progress and development of members of the China Horse Club's thoroughbred team being set for spring racing in New Zealand.

"I had to do the quarantine period when I came back which finished about ten days ago," Wallace said.

"It's refreshing coming back from America to be able to move around and get out and about.

"I'm only temporarily back here before I return to the States although everything is fairly quiet at this time of year.

"We're waiting for racing to get going here in New Zealand but we do think we have quite an exciting team of young horses that will be ready to go for the spring.

"Most of them have gone back into work this week and we feel like we have a pretty good bunch."

Wallace indicated the Club's New Zealand racing team will be around eight strong with a mix of two and three-year-olds that includes impressive debut winner Unition (Fastnet Rock).

The son of Group One winner Diademe (NZ) took out a Listed 1100m juvenile sprint at Counties at his first raceday start and was then put aside after finishing third in the Gr.2 Wakefield Challenge Stakes (1200m) in his subsequent run.

"We kept a few rising two-year-olds here that we bought at Karaka so they will be on the local scene plus some of our rising three-year-olds including Unition," he said.

"He just came back into work this week and looks good.

"What he did early on was very surprising as he was open in the knees, up behind and unbalanced so he probably shouldn't have done anywhere near what he did as a two-year-old.

"We're pretty excited about him as he matures into his three-year-old season so we will poke away with him on a path to the 2000 Guineas (Gr.1, 1600m) at Riccarton.

"Suffused is an unraced rising three-year-old who went well at the trials before suffering a setback and we think he has a lot of ability as well.

"Crushing is a Vancouver colt that we bought at the sales and he had a jumpout this week to top off his second preparation.

"He shows a lot of precocity and looks a natural two-year-old who does everything right so he could be a candidate for some of those early races once he comes back from a little break."

One star who will be missing from the China Horse Club line-up this season will be multiple stakes-winning mare Queen Of Diamonds (NZ) (Savabeel) who has been retired to the broodmare paddock.

"Queen of Diamonds has been retired after she unfortunately suffered a problem that saw us nearly lose her," Wallace said.

"It wasn't looking very good at all but luckily she has made a nice recovery and will be seen in the breeding barn this season.

"She has a massive pedigree so she is a nice mare to have in that role."

Wallace is also looking forward to former top three-year-old Madison County (NZ) (Pins) making his belated first appearance in the USA following an interrupted preparation.

The dual Group One winner hasn't been seen since completing a lacklustre three-start Melbourne campaign in the spring that followed him finishing a gallant second behind Angel Of Truth (Animal Kingdom) in the Gr.1 Australian Derby (2400m) at Randwick.

Sent to the stable of leading turf trainer Chad Brown, Madison County had his American debut delayed after experiencing a slight setback but is now back in work and getting ready for a raceday resumption.

"We took Madison County over to America and he was in his first prep when he pulled up a little bit scratchy in the same knee that he chipped when he ran second in the Australian Derby," he said.

"It wasn't anything major although we had to back off him a little, but he has been back in work for about a month now.

"He is getting through some slow work and I would hope that come the early part of September he would be ready to step out somewhere."

RELIABLE MAN FILLY TOPS DIGITAL SOUTH ISLAND SALE

New Zealand Bloodstock's annual South Island Sale saw its first-ever online session conclude on Gavelhouse Plus on Sunday evening.

Prominent agent Phill Cataldo was busy throughout the Sale, investing in four yearlings including the top-priced lot early on in the session.

Purchased on behalf of an Australian buyer, the Reliable Man filly out of Lady Zafira (Lot 2) was secured for $58,000 from the draft of Canterbury-based Ripple Creek.

"She is a very well-grown, strong and athletic filly," commented Cataldo.

"I like Reliable Man... I was involved with the purchase of Kinane (NZ) (Reliable Man) at the 2018 Ready to Run Sale.

"He is a current Group Three winner in Australia and is going really well, so he definitely appeals to their market."

While photos and videos are essential for buyers, it comes hand in hand with the inspection process, something Cataldo found worthwhile when purchasing from this Sale.

After pre-sale inspections of each yearling offered, he was pleased with the quality of yearlings he saw.

"It was really beneficial travelling to the South Island with Danny Rolston a couple of weeks ago.

"I was happy with my purchases and I thought the quality of the stock offered in the Sale was good.

"The vendors did a really good job with their line-up of horses," said Cataldo.

ANOTHER COUNTRY CUP FOR HEPTAGON

New Zealand-bred six-year-old Heptagon (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) provided jockey Dean Yendall with an armchair ride that allowed the Victorian hoop to register a unique Cups double over the weekend.

Little more than 24 hours after steering Patch Adams (Dane Shadow) to victory in the transferred Apsley Cup (2000m) at Casterton, Yendall partnered the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Heptagon to a popular win in Sunday's Swan Hill Cup (1600m).

Well-supported to start the $2 favourite, Heptagon didn't disappoint his backers with an easy three length victory over Sirconi (Nicconi) and Achernar Star (Gingerbread Man).

Kent was full of praise for Yendall's ride on Heptagon and indicated the son of Jimmy Choux, who is prepared from the team's Warrnambool base, could be given a shot at next month's Listed Winter Championship Final (1600m) at Flemington.

"It was a perfect ride and he was given every chance," Kent said.

"That (Winter Championship) was in the back of our mind pending him going on with it.

"We'll get him home, he'll have a week at the beach and the aim will probably be to get him to Flemington."

Heptagon was raised and sold by Bradbury Park. He was offered on behalf of Nearco Stud at the 2015 Premier Yearling Sale at Karaka and bought by Price for $150,000.

Heptagon cruises to a comfortable victory in the Swan Hill Cup (1600m) (Pat Scala-Racing Photos)

He is from Seven Schillings, the top filly on the 2008-09 NZ 2YO Free Handicap as the winner of the Gr.3 Taranaki Classic (1200m) and runner-up in the Gr.1 Diamond Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie.

Heptagon is the elder half-brother to Gr.2 Wellington Guineas (1400m) winner Emily Margaret (NZ) (Pins).

MARC DEVCICH APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER

Newly appointed Cambridge Stud General Manager, Marc Devcich (supplied)

Cambridge Stud has announced that well-respected and widely-experienced horseman Marc Devcich has been appointed to the role of General Manager at the Stud.

Devcich has been involved in the thoroughbred industry since his school days and has previously worked at Highview Stud, Windsor Park Stud and Mapperley Stud in various roles.

In Australia, he has enjoyed stints at Segenhoe Stud and Widden Stud and in the United States at Dixiana Farm in Kentucky where a highlight was foaling down the future Gr.1 Epsom Derby winner Benny The Dip.

Devcich, 47, will take up his role on June 15, leaving nearby Henley Park, a successful agistment and sale preparation operation, in the capable hands of his wife Sarah.

"It's exciting and a real privilege to be General Manager at Cambridge Stud. It's an iconic farm and a world-renowned nursery, I'm really looking forward to the challenge," Devcich said.

"I'm delighted and really looking forward to working with such a dedicated and passionate team of people."

Chief Executive Henry Plumpton said Devcich was a great fit for Cambridge Stud.

"I have known Marc and Sarah for 25 years and they are a quality couple. Marc is exactly the right person for Cambridge Stud.

"He has a great reputation and the experience we need. He has run a successful business himself and understands the fundamentals of running a stud farm properly.

BENNER KEEN TO GET BACK INTO ACTION

A pair of impressive trial winners at Foxton during the week has Otaki trainer John Benner looking forward to the return of racing in the Central Districts next month.

Benner and partner Hollie Wynyard produced progressive winter galloper Happy Star (NZ) (Fabulous) to win an open class 1000m heat on Thursday while a well-bred Tavistock colt also saluted in a maiden catchweight event over the same distance.

While the stable is generally quiet during the winter as they get ready for spring racing, Benner believes they have enough firepower to make their mark in the coming months.

"We normally don't have many runners in the winter but given the circumstances of late we will probably have a few more than normal this year," he said.

"Happy Star won three races last winter and thrives on the wet tracks so he is one that will be ready to resume when racing gets going again.

"He's a pretty progressive horse and his trial was nothing short of brilliant really considering he was only really threequarters ready.

"He will improve out of that and will most likely have another trial or jumpout before possibly lining up at Awapuni on July 4."

Benner was also rapt with the performance of the three-year-old Tavistock colt who looped the field from last to win his heat under a hold for rider Lisa Allpress.

Bred by Lady Justine and Sir Patrick Hogan, the colt is out of Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m) runner-up Sursum Corda and is closely related to Group One winners St. Reims (NZ) (Zabeel), Champagne (NZ) (Zabeel) and twice New Zealand Horse of the Year, Bonneval (NZ) (Makfi).

"He is a promising horse that has taken a little bit of time to come to it, but he has a lot of ability," Benner said.

"He has taken some time but being a Tavistock, he will get up over some ground, so the future looks bright for him."

Benner is preparing for spring racing with a mainly young and untried team following the loss of several notable performers from last season including Group One winner Wyndspelle (NZ) (Iffraaj), Gr.2 Wellington Guineas (1600m) winner Gold Bracelet (NZ) (Pins) and stakes placed juvenile Piaggio (NZ) (Vespa).

"Gold Bracelet has been sold and will race in Australia from the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr stable," he said.

"Wyndspelle has been retired while Piaggio has also been sold.

"It has put a bit of a hole in the team but we definitely have some horses here that can fill the void.

"We'll probably just plod along for the next couple of months but then once spring racing starts, we will have some very nice horses ready to go.

"We have got a really nice Exceed And Excel filly that looks very smart plus a couple of others that we got from the Karaka sales.

"Once we come out of the other side of the wet tracks, we will be ready to go.

"It's a little bit frustrating at the moment but we are in the same boat as everyone else so we just have to keep going and make the best of it."

THE SHOW GOES ON WITH BELMONT TRIUMPH

Potential West Australian star Showmanship (NZ) indicated he was heading right to the top with another comprehensive victory on the weekend.

The Showcasing gelding sat outside the pace for rider William Pike before easing clear to win effortlessly by five lengths over 1400m at Belmont on Saturday as he registered his third win from his first four starts.

A son of Don Eduardo mare Khales (NZ), Showmanship is the younger half-brother of Singapore Gold Cup (2200m) winner Bahana (NZ) (Elusive City) and looks to have a promising future after kicking off his latest campaign with a narrow win over 1200m at the same venue.

"He never looked comfortable at his last start and looked like he needed more ground," co-trainer Grant Williams said.

"We were a lot more confident going up to 1400m although we were respectful towards the others in the race.

"He had to put him on speed as we probably could have broken a record running home and may not have been able to catch them.

"He travelled a lot better with the blinkers on and the 1400m was more up his alley so he was able to place him that little bit closer."

Pike was full of praise for the effort of Showmanship against a useful

Showmanship makes it three wins from four starts as he bolts home at Belmont (Simon Merritt – Western Racepix) line-up that included three-year-old Resortman (Helmet) who was unbeaten heading into the race.

"He was a bit floundery out the back last time and we couldn't afford to do that," he said.

"There was a good horse in Resortman against us so respect had to be shown and we had to have him in our sights, especially the way we raced last time.

"He is still just hanging a little bit but I think there is another gear there once he matures a bit more."

Bred by Haunui Bloodstock, Showmanship was a $145,000 purchase for bloodstock agent John Chalmers from Haunui's 2017 Select Sale draft at Karaka and races out of the Grant and Alana Williams stable for leviathan owner Bob Peters.

WALLER TO HAVE BIG SAY IN TATTERSALLS CUP

Improving stayer Stardome (NZ) (Savabeel) could add to trainer Chris Waller's already strong hand in the Gr.3 Tattersall's Cup (2400m) after his win at Eagle Farm on Saturday.

Waller had half the field in the Gr. 3 Chairman's Handicap (2000m) at Doomben on May 30 where he produced the first six across the line and most are expected to back up in the Tattersall's Cup.

The Tattersall's Cup is the major staying race of the winter, after Racing Queensland scrapped the Gr. 2 Brisbane Cup (2400m) and Listed Queensland Cup (3200m).

In-form jockey Luke Dittman cemented his association with Waller with his slugging win on Stardome in the Ascot Green Handicap (2200m).

Waller's Queensland manager Paul Shailer said Stardome was gradually building up to a middle-distance win.

"He has been strong at the finish of a couple of 1400m and 1600m races and was ready for 2200m," Shailer said.

"I think he is up to some of the better races in the winter. But Chris will make the decision about a Tatt's Cup start after he looks at the likely field.

"As is evident, Chris know exactly which horses are suited in which races."

Stardome is bred to be a genuine stayer being by Cox Plate winner Savabeel out of a Pentire mare in Celeste.

"One thing he is bred to get long distance," Shailer said.
